CAG report on Cycle Corporation of India

1498. SHRI SUNIL BASU RAY: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the CAG had in its Report for 1986, commented on the targets of production and achievements in Cycle Corporation of India Ltd.; and

(b) if so, whether the company has taken steps to implement the CAG recommendation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INDUSTRY (SHRI P. K. THUNGON): (a) Yes Sir.

(b) As per observation of CAG due to certain inherited problems like old and obsolete plant and machinery, excess manpower and acute shortage of working capital, etc., the company has been incurring continuous losses from its inception which have direct bearing on its production capability. In view of the fact that there has not been any change in the prevalent situation the company could not improve its production performance.
